

EXAMPLES OF QUALIFIED DISABILITY EXPENSES

ABLE accounts can pay for a variety of expenses related to maintaining the health, independence and quality of life for people with disabilities.

Basic Living Expenses 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Food ✓ Heating fuel ✓ Gas ✓ Electricity ✓ Water ✓ Sewer ✓ Garbage removal 	Transportation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Car ✓ Bus ✓ Metro ✓ Subway ✓ Uber ✓ Taxi ✓ Train ✓ Plane
Health & Wellness 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Medical bills ✓ Medications ✓ Exercise services or equipment ✓ Wheelchairs, walkers, hospital beds and other durable medical equipment 	Financial Management & Legal Fees 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Tax preparation ✓ Financial Advisor services ✓ Attorney Fees ✓ Court fees
Housing 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Mortgage (including property insurance required by the mortgage holder) ✓ Real property taxes ✓ Rent 	Assistive Technology 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Computer ✓ Hearing aids ✓ Screen reader ✓ iDevices ✓ Apps ✓ Communication Devices
Education & Training 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Text books ✓ Tuition ✓ Certification ✓ Trade school ✓ Attendant fees 	Burial Fees & Expenses 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Pre-planning fees for burial ✓ Funeral and burial expenses ✓ Pre-paid cemetery plots
Employment 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Tools of the trade ✓ Certification & licensing fees ✓ Work-related uniforms ✓ Job coaching ✓ Start-up fees for entrepreneurs 	This guide provides examples of possible disability related expenses. Remember: ABLE account holders are advised to maintain copies of receipts for all purchases and fees when using money from their ABLE accounts.	